WELCOME BACK!

On behalf of the DEEP Executive Board and Board of Directors, I would like to welcome you all back to a new school year! There are so many wonderful things to look forward to this year, starting with the return of the Annual DEEP Wine & Food Tasting on Thursday, October 27. Get your tickets today! Then save the date of Saturday, December 3, for the Danvers Holiday Festival at Endicott Park and Tree Lighting in Danvers Square. We're also excited to announce that the DEEP Teacher Grant applications will open at the end of October. It is through the generous support of the community through our memberships, sponsorships, and fundraising programs and events that DEEP can continue to support the teachers and students in the Danvers Public Schools. Thank you! Wishing you all a beautiful fall season.

Danvers Holiday Festival & Tree Lighting

This year, DEEP is partnering with Endicott Park to present the Danvers Holiday Festival at Endicott Park on Saturday, December 3, 2022, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

There will be something for everyone: arts & crafts, face painting, hayrides, a bonfire with smore's, musical performances by the high school and middle school choral groups, storytelling, games, barnyard bingo, and a visit from Santa himself!

In the evening, the community will gather downtown to help light the Holiday Tree. Look for more information soon on the DEEP and Endicott Park Facebook pages.

DEEP is looking for parents to join the board and help us continue our commitment to the schools. Help us fundraise, select grants and plan for the future.

The time commitment is short, but the benefits are many. Plus, it's a great way to continue your support of the schools during the middle and high school years when opportunities for direct participation in the classroom are limited.

Please join us for our next meeting on Wednesday, October 19, at 8:00 a.m. – Brookline Bank, 107 High Street.
